Mike Parker is new interim pastor

Mike L. Parker

Mike is a retired educator who lives in Perry with his wife Jan. They have two grown sons, Ben and Jake. Mike recently completed an interim at Shady Grove Baptist Church near Byron. He will officially begin as our interim on June 16, however, he has been quite busy already visiting, leading prayer meeting and preaching on Sunday evening.

Mike began a study of Proverbs last Sunday evening (June 2) which he will continue in the coming weeks. The study is based on devotions he wrote for his family. The following is one of those devotions and the one he shared with us June 2.

“Good evening family. Proverbs 2 relates to us that God wants us to seek after knowledge and wisdom like we were seeking after silver. And not going on a blind search, but searching as if God has given us a shovel and told us that somewhere in this swimming pool size area is buried a billion dollars’ worth of silver, and He gives the additional promise that if we dig, we will find it. We would immediately start digging, knowing that every shovel full of dirt just brought us that much closer to being a billionaire.

Likewise, God has told us where to dig for something much more valuable than silver. The unequalled value of wisdom, discernment, knowledge, and discretion are what await us. The digging place we find those nugget is in His word! That is why we are camping out in Proverbs for the next three months.

The last half of Proverbs 2 explains to us the folly of not seeking and the blessing of being a seeker. The blessing is that wisdom will enter our heart and then discretion will protect us from the perils of a crooked path. Wisdom will also deliver us from crooked men and from the adulterous woman or man that may seek our demise. I have already enjoyed our Proverbs adventure and it is only day two of our journey together. Well, I have a shovel in my hand and sweat on my brow, how about you! Let’s keep digging. God bless!”

Mike’s phone number is 229-815-6814.

Pastor Mike will be leading the prayer meeting and Bible study. Note the time has changed to 7pm.
