It's not goodbye

Jacob Brimm

May the Lord of peace himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:16

Have you ever stood at the edge of a calm lake? A calm so intense that the water looks like a perfect sheet of glass had been laid down. No wave, no wrinkle, just the perfect reflection of the sky above. It is truly breathtaking. It is an amazing thing to find calm water like that, because so many things could lift that calm and leave it like a distant memory. A wind could ruffle the water into waves, a fish could jump leaving ripples, or a rock could be skipped in attempt to beat the all time record; all changing the scene of this calm body of water into one that is not so special.

Peace is like a calm lake. We can find ourselves little moments of tranquility and serenity, precious moments of 'calm before the storm'. The hour before the house awakens from it's slumbering inhabitants is often a time sought by early risers. The hours after the little ones are placed in bed, finally asleep, silence. Perhaps it is the deer stand. Only each of these can be broken, and the peace stolen, the moment passed. The rocking of alarm clocks, the clap of thunder, the nightmare, the train, the pop of a rifle. The peace gone as a memory.

Peace is not like a calm lake. True peace, Biblical peace, is not dependent on the environment. I does not change based on it's situation; it is simply peace! A peace brought on by the Lord of Peace, is a peace so great that the memory of anything other than peace cannot be recalled! Once you have this peace you can look back and cannot imagine a life without it! You cannot fathom how you ever could have not had this peace, and every situation you may find yourself in the future seems less terrifying, because you have peace. Deep peace. You do not need to find peace, because peace has found you. You do not need to march out into the nature, or rise early in the morning, because the Peace of God has entered into your life, sought you out, bought you with a price, and longs for you to enjoy the precious time with the giver.

Peace is a special gift. In the midst of a great storm, the Lord said: be still. All the waters calmed down, became like glass. From raging waves, so fierce the vessel almost capsized, to waters so calm. No trace of the storm that had just raged. And in the blink of an eye. This is the power of the Giver of Peace, and this gift of peace He has given to you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with everyone. Amen.
Revelation 22:21

Till the Lord brings us together again,
Bro. Jacob

Thank You from The Mailbox Club

We want to let you know...how we appreciate your willingness to pray and give to The Mailbox Club...Last year, God enabled us to enroll over 3.3 million students, mostly children, and more than 1.6 million indicated that they had trusted Jesus Christ...My heart overflows with gratitude to our Lord for you. You are such an encouragement..... God richly bless you!

In Jesus' love,
Lawanna Roberson
The Mailbox Club

You can read the entire letter which is posted on the bulletin board across from the nursery. BBC sends part of the offering collected during Wiggler In The Word to The Mailbox Club. TMC's purpose is to win children and young people of the world to Christ, and help nurture them into spiritual maturity through Bible study courses and into local churches.

BBC was blessed to have members from Georgia Southwestern's Baptist Collegiate Ministries to lead our 11am worship service on October 7. Our Matt Youngblood is a prominent member of this group.

Guests from afar: The two ladies on the left are Cornelia Featherman and Ollie Lynn Kellner, both from New Jersey. They are daughters of Louise and Ollie Thompson, and attended BBC in their youth. They spent most of the week with their cousin Mary Beth Reed-Rogers. On the same Sunday, October 21, a very familiar lady from Ohio, Rachel Thomas (right), along with her two daughters, visited BBC. Most people at BBC know Rachel, whose claim to fame is that she's Elizabeth Taylor's sister. All our guests are special, but these three ladies are extra special.

Women On Mission had a special program guest at their October 16th meeting who not only presented a very interesting and interactive program about Medicare but also brought a delicious lunch and prizes for everyone. Thanks for coming Terri Gregory. All those present enjoyed it all. Pictured above are Pat Hatcher and Lillian Gresham admiring each other's prize.

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good.
His love endures forever.
